

HTML Task 2

- Create a page that uses the list tag to show your selection of products.
- Each product should link to a separate page that uses a table to show details about the product.
- Furthermore, use the other tags that you have used to add style and flair to your pages.